

JOSH WHITE

A Planner at Urban Strategies, Josh completed his graduate degree at Queen's University School of Urban and Regional Planning. With background in policy, land use planning and community advocacy, his experience has focused on transit-oriented development design and implementation, as well as downtown urban revitalization. He brings to his work a strong understanding of community perspectives on urban development and the need for innovative implementation strategies for revitalization efforts. Josh founded and was President of the Calgary Urban Initiative, an citizen advocacy group which provides a public voice for urbanism in Calgary.

EDUCATION

2007

M. Pl. Urban and Regional Planning
Queen's University
Kingston, ON

Josh is currently working on station area planning and transit oriented development implementation framework and for three Light Rail Transit stations on Calgary's Northwest LRT Corridor. He also is working on a master plan for a major government employment node and hospital site in NW Toronto.

2004

Hon. B.A. Urban Studies and Political Science
University of Toronto
Toronto, ON

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

2008-Present – Urban Planner, Urban Strategies Inc., Toronto, ON
2006-2007 – Community Planner, Beltline Communities, Calgary, AB

SELECTED PROJECT EXPERIENCE

2008- Transit Oriented Development Station Area Planning, Calgary, AB
2008- MTO Downsview Master Plan, Toronto, ON
2008- Transit Oriented Development Station Area Planning, Saint Paul, MN

CONTACT

T 416 340 9004 x304
F 416 340 8400
jwhite@urbanstrategies.com
www.urbanstrategies.com