INGER SQUIRES MCIP, RPP

Inger Squires is an Urban Planner with a diverse background in complex planning, public engagement, education and athletics.

At Urban Strategies, Inger has overseen the visioning, public engagement, and master planning for university campuses and has managed the approval process for complex mixed-use development approval projects. She provides her planning opinion and acts as a project manager for various private and public sector clients. This work involves the interpretation and analysis of land use related data for the preparation of Due Diligence reports, Planning Justification reports, community services and facilities studies, and public consultation.

Inger is currently working for Choice Properties REIT to assist them with master planning and development approvals for sites in the Toronto area, for General Motors Canada to undertake the necessary planning approvals for the Toronto GM Mobility Campus - a multi-use facility including office space, research and development facilities and a car dealership, for the City of Toronto undertaking Heritage Conservation Districts for Distillery District and Kensington Market and for the Regional Planning Commissioners of Ontario (RPCO) to develop a report on reforming the Ontario Municipal Board.

Inger recently completed the multiple award winning Campus Master Plan for the University of Ottawa and the Master Plan for the Queens Quay LCBO. Recognized as an effective project manager, Inger often coordinates large teams to ensure that the project stays on task and meets key deliverables. Inger has won awards for her academic pursuits and research. Inger is a full member of the Canadian Institute of Planners and Ontario Professional Planners Institute (OPPI) and the University of Toronto's Planning Alumni Committee.
