

Stephen Brophy

Urban Designer

Stephen is an urban designer with a background in landscape architecture and architecture. At Urban Strategies, Stephen is currently working on several projects, including a visioning and redevelopment study for Place d'Orleans in Ottawa, as well as development studies and approvals for several projects in Toronto.

Stephen joined Urban Strategies with professional experience in Montreal and New York City. Professionally, he has contributed to large city-building projects such as Atlanta's Park Over GA400, and New York's Hudson Yards West Railyards' Public Space and Park.

Stephen completed his bachelor's degree in Architecture from McGill University in 2014. More recently, he graduated with distinction from the Master of Landscape Architecture program at the University of Toronto. His academic research focused on the social-life of the city, cultural urban landscapes, and the adaptive reuse of marginal spaces.
